Geological Museum at the Faculty of Science (Alexandria University, EGYPT)

The Geological Museum at Alexandria University has several significant specimens, such as rocks, minerals, and fossils, collected through the research activities of the professors and post-graduate students of the Geological Department-Alexandria University. The Museum was rejuvenated after the generous funding of Centamin Gold Company. Since its opening, it has provided the public, e.g., families and elementary schools students, as well as undergraduate students, with opportunities to learn about domestic regional geology, underground resources, marine geology, global environment, and geological hazards, including volcanic eruption, earthquake, and tsunami, as well as the latest knowledge of earth sciences. The Museum holds special seasonal exhibitions and urgent investigation debriefing sessions as necessary. It also advances the effort to use our expertise and technology in earth science in the industry. The Museum's ultimate goal is to show what our planet is like, learn how closely humans are interconnected, and think about what we should do to be friendly with our Only One Earth.

The Zoology Department Museum includes a group of preserved and mummified animals, most of them from the Egyptian environment, such as indigo fish - fish of the Red and Mediterranean seas - reptiles - birds – mammals. In addition to a group of human skeletons and some animals and skulls. The museum includes a distinguished collection of mummified heads of Egyptian and European deer. A distinguished collection of coral reefs of the Red Sea are displayed in addition to manufactured models of life cycles and growth stages of many insects, vertebrates and vertebrates, as well as many slides and microscopic samples.

Display methods vary, such as wooden and glass cupboards equipped with lighting, identification panels, paintings, microscopic slides, and direct projection on some corridor walls.

The museum contributes to providing educational services to undergraduate and postgraduate students through review, examination and practical application of some academic courses. The opportunity for school visits as a service to the Alexandrian community is also provided.
